WE NOMINATE

Robert Laning Clifford, a "man with a mission," who recently concluded a 46-day tour of the United States as coordinator of the widely publicized Asia Town Hall Mission which succeeded in bringing thousands upon thousands of Americans into direct contact with spokesmen for a dozen different countries of Free Asia and the Near East—extending from Egypt to Japan. Never before, until Clifford and his associates in Town Hall, Inc., grabbed the initiative, had it been possible for so many Americans in all walks of life to exchange information and points of view with government officials, educators, editors and other leaders from "the other side of the world."

The idea behind the Town Hall Mission, that launched its 22-city "swing" here in March and eventually reached such centers as Chicago, Kansas City, Los Angeles and Yankton, S. D., was simply "people-to-people" association between Asians and Americans. To this end, the 43-year old Clifford, for some five post-war years a U.S. Foreign Service Officer, flew to 22 Asian cities last fall to meet and engage prospective speakers. Well realizing that no single person, or group of persons, could speak for all of Asia with its area and differing problems, Clifford lined up a remarkable collection of participants, each of whom was qualified to discuss a particular regional topic.

The success of their unique venture, underwritten by American business firms, private foundations and Town Hall, was indicated over the weekend in an interview granted at the United Nations by the Clifford-nominated

Indian representative, Govindan Ramachandran, educator-sociologist-journalist and a follower of the late Mohandas K. Gandhi. Contrary to his expectations upon arriving in the Western Hemisphere for the first time, Ramachandran said that he found no signs of a "widening gap between Indian and United States views" and was impressed by the fact that the average American had shown "great tolerance toward every other point of view."

To his task of stimulating more positive American interest in Asia and the Near East, this Illinois-born son of an attorney—a member of Princeton University's Class of 1933—brought a wealth of experience. One of the few American officers to win World War II combat awards in three theaters of war (American, Mediterranean and China-Burma-India), Clifford served for almost two years with the South East Asia Command before holding forth as a U.S. Foreign Service Officer in Belgrade, Rangoon, and Beirut. His pre-Town Hall assignments included association in an executive capacity with American industry and a tour of duty as a consultant to the Ford Foundation.

For making it possible for qualified Asians to take part in the some 400 "community meetings" and thereby gain new familiarity with the American scene; for tightening the bonds which surely exist between the New and Free Asiatic Worlds; for helping emphasize this country's heart-felt desire in hearing all sides of vitally important Asian questions; he is Town Topics' nominee for

Township School Timetable Set.
With its special election date moved back to June 23 because state approval is needed to exceed the present school district borrowing power, the Township Board of Education last week outlined its timetable leading up to the vote on the proposed new 'Littlebrook School.'

The first step will be a hearing next Wednesday before the state commissioner of education. The present and future needs of the district will be explained, along with proposed building plans to meet the needs, and a request for extension of borrowing power for the district.

William L. Wilson, chairman of the board's finance committee said that a fairly strong case for the extension can be presented on the basis of anticipated increase in tax rateables, current financial status and the need for additional facilities.

The recent average yearly increase of pupils in the Township has amounted to nearly two classrooms a year. Based on the facts here and experiences of other municipalities, state approval is likely to be granted for the expansion.

If approval is given, a public hearing on the plans will be held on June 7. Fulmer and Bowers, architects for the building program, will present plans in sketch

Cops, No Robbers

Borough and Township police guarded the First National Bank, the Princeton Bank and Trust Company and the latter's Shopping Center Branch during their business hours on Monday. The action was taken in response to a State Police warning that a holdup might be staged.

The day passed without incident, and further amplification of the tip was not forthcoming. The public had little difficulty, however, in discerning that unusual precautions were being taken. In addition to a plainclothesman inside each bank, a uniformed policeman armed with a "Tommy gun" was stationed in the corridor leading to the elevator in the First National Bank and in the former grocery store next to the Princeton Bank. Police cruiser cars were also in the vicinity of the banks until after they closed at 2 o'clock.

form, cost data and other information for voter discussion.

The final step will be the special June 23 election for action on the necessary bond issue.

"God's Man Alone." In California, the 20,000-seat Hollywood Bowl has been sold out for weeks for the night of Tuesday, May 24. The occasion is the production of a colorful dramatic pageant depicting the 16th century crusade for freedom by the Scotsman John Knox.

Producer of the spectacle will be John F. Becker of the Somerville Road, who last summer was responsible for "Festival of Faith," the large-scale religious spectacle that drew more than 100,000 persons to Chicago's huge Soldier's Field. Next week's drama is a presentation of the 167th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

A cast of 200 and a 250-voice choir will be under Mr. Becker's direction, while a 70-piece orchestra will play. Both music and dance will be liberally used to tell the story, which has been written by Helen Kroner. Mr. Becker and Miss Kroner collaborated three years ago on "Presbyterian Panorama," which filled New York's Madison Square Garden to capacity during the 1952 General Assembly.

The California production, entitled "God's Man Alone," will be staged under the stars, with spectacular use of spot and flood lights illuminating the huge cast and the scores of dancers. Sample from the stage directions: "A long narrow platform reached by steps stage left and right stretches across upstage center. Flood lights are to be placed behind it, so that galley slaves may be silhouetted."

As was the case last summer in Chicago, the scope of the undertaking is such that no rain date can be planned in the event of inclement weather. Mr. Becker, who has been in California for nearly a month to plan and rehearse the drama, has his fingers crossed that the Chamber of Commerce propaganda on sunny Southern California lives up to advance billing. The New Year's Day Tournament of Roses and Rose Bowl football game were soaked by pouring dew.

Silver Dollar Days
Merchants in the business district are currently working on a plan for "Silver Dollar Days" to be held on June 3 and 4.

Under the plan, shoppers making a cash purchase of $10 or more at a participating store will receive a shiny silver dollar. A committee consisting of Murray Abelson, Eric Milian, Loar Quickle and Max Zinder has been named to plan the event.

day. A meeting of the Township planning Board this Tuesday at 8 in Township Hall will take the place of the regular June meeting, and among matters to be aired are the sub-division of the Russell Estate and a petition opposing the so-called Rosedale-Kingston By-Pass which has been the master plan for the past four years.

The June meeting will be closed in order to consider the recommendations for zoning revision which have been prepared by planning consultant Charles K. Able. A letter of petition addressed to Mr. Able and the planning board is likely to be brought up at Tuesday's meeting.

The petition requests that the zoning legislation include changes which would "prevent construction . . . in Residence District No. One, which is out of character and conformity with existing construction." The petition is signed by more than 50 residents of the Stony Brook area on or near Quaker Road and was originated by Charles C. Davis Jr.

The petition asks that in the computing of rear yards, no area be used which includes a body of water or swamp naturally flooded at some times during the year, and that front yard requirements be increased from 200 to 400 feet in the district.

The petitioners also seek to prevent the installing of cesspools or septic tanks when sanitary sewers of buildings within 400 feet are connected to the municipal system. Residents of the area involved attacked housing being constructed on the Stony Brook side of Quaker Road at the Township Committee meeting six weeks ago.

4,500-Mile Mission. Hours after he had been alerted on Saturday, April 23, Dr. Nathaniel L. Greenfield, a member of the Princeton Hospital Staff for the past three years, was "airborne" heading for Bogota, Colombia, to do his best for a man reported at death's edge following a severe attack of bulbar spinal polio.

Less than a fortnight later Jean Model, a mining engineer with interests in gold-mining operations in Colombia, was resting comfortably in Roosevelt Hospital, New York City, to where he had been flown as an iron-lung patient by an American military transport plane.

In Colombia Dr. Greenfield, a consultant in communicable diseases to the World Health Organization of the United Nations and also a consultant to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, had performed under semi-primitive conditions a delicate, life-saving operation and had arranged to have an iron lung flown in from Panama.

This week, when questioned about the dramatic episode, Dr. Greenfield, who has figured in several equally spectacular medical cases and is associated with the Willard Parker and Roosevelt Hospitals in New York as well as with Princeton Hospital, said: "It isn't much of a story."

Return of the Riot. After a two-year absence, student rioting returned to Nassau Street shortly before midnight Tuesday. Interpretations of the outburst range from the undergraduate conception of good-natured fun to the thorough irritation of many a resident of the community this time primarily by men summoned by a false alarm and a running hydrant.

Actual harm inflicted was negligible compared to the uprising of 1953, when store windows were smashed and automobiles and other property severely damaged. Police and procters had the crowd of more than 500 students fairly well under control throughout the uproar, although it took nearly 90 minutes from the start of the riot at 11:10 to disperse the crowd.

Two or three street signs were broken, a few trash cans were tipped over and burned, and traffic had to be detoured from the center of Nassau Street. Townspeople who hoped that the first such demonstration this year would be the last were resigned to the fact that chances of riots departing from the Prince—Continued on Page 4

It's New to Us

Jacaranda and Alligator... our two unrelaxed Brazilian exports and we found them side by side in the new gift shelves they now have at the Brazil Coffee and Food Shop, a member of the Rosedale family on Alexander Street.

Jacaranda is — but of course you know! — an extremely hard wood that has been used for hand carvings and for elaborate head work. It is the hardest wood used to make a massive head or book-end set, and a pair of wall plaques that show the head of a Brazilian and the profile of a woman.

Jacaranda is also one of the woods in those jigsaw puzzle lay-out pieces the Brazilian Craftsman has, to illustrate an immovable little box, or cigarette or jewelry with the tops showing various tropical scenes, mostly of Rio harbor. The pieces of puzzle in various sizes, fitted together to make the picture. The wood is not painted; it is used in its natural state, and the blending of wood tones is warm and remarkably effective.

The alligator is not a refugee from a Rosedale locker, but the source of a fine and supple belt. These are men's belts, polished and varnished or leathered $6. They are lined with antelope.

Ladies who admire alligator may buy leather lapel flowers, single or double, in gold, diamonds, or pearls, or in bottle green. Fine accessory for a fall suit. They are $3.50 and $4, depending on whether you buy single or double flowers.

For women shoppers, probably the greatest attraction in the assembly of gifts — brought back to Princeton by the wives of the Rosedale family, by the way — is a collection of hand-tooled cowhide bags and belts to match. For $10 and up, you may have a drawstring bag, or a knitting bag, elongated, rounded in the Brazilian manner and wholly lined with pigskin. There is a business-like brief-case, too, and man's travel bag, or a man's hat bag that can double as brief case.

Summer-time bags at the Brazil Shop are made of coconut fibre, left natural in the case of the larger bags, or decorated with a broom of fibres on its top, or dyed brilliantly in the case of a giant green knitting or shopping bag with a leather base. Some of the fine leather bags are lined with a cotton print and we don't see how you can carry one without a basket of fruit on your head.

In the interests of space, we'll mention briefly some other unique pieces in this collection: those dazzling blue iridescent butterfly wings, arranged with taste, a round plate rimmed with silver . . . sets of sterling silver spoons in tea, demitasse-lead tea and salt-spoon size with chunky handles . . . ceramic tiles knobbing the tops of the handles . . . ceramic tiles at $1 each with figures painted on by hand . . . vases characteristic of Brazil's native art . . . certain peasant dolls three inches high, done in felt at $2.50 a pair . . . small clutch purses of unborn calf in white or tan and white . . . silver necklaces made small enough to be cuff-links.

If you're shopping for a bride or just for your own curiosity, the Brazil Shop's new collection will be interesting and rewarding.

Polish Up the Mink. For all animals whose pelts have found their way into fur coats, this is Hollanderizing time. You do not achieve Hollanderized garments simply by passing your coat into the washing machine — muskrat is not dacron. The coat must be specially cleaned and processed to be Hollanderized, and people who perform their rites in Newark. You may now, instead of trekking all the way up the Turnpike, simply leave your coat at 30 Almack, at University Cleaners. They have just been named a Hollander agent. This means that University is authorized to take your coat and send it to the people who do the job. You insure your coat at University and it's taken care of all the way to Newark and back. Then you may go to Newark and get it from University's storage vault and pick it up next fall. (You may even extend the insurance at a very low rate, so that the coat is protected while you're wearing it next winter.)

Hollanderizing gives a sheen and gloss to those hair tips that can loose their lustre over the years. It is the only nationally known method for the cleaning and glazing of fur coats, safe and successful as it can be.

Hospital Fete Plans. Plans for the second annual June Fete for the benefit of Princeton Hospital are moving forward rapidly with the aid of civic, social and religious organizations. The day-long event is to be held at Palmer Stadium on Saturday, June 11.

Petikan, soft drinks; Brandon Club, Mrs. Bertha Brandon, aprons; Latin Mass Church, Mrs. Barbara Holm, Holy Name; Holy Name Sweet Shop; Nurses Aid, Mrs. Irving Kingford, lost and found; Catholic Daughters, Mrs. E. One of the features of the fete will be the craft fair, organized by the Bemis' Catering Service and served by the women of the Second Presbyterian Church. Tickets for the luncheon, being sold in advance because of the success of planning, the number of luncheons served, may be purchased at Hinkson's for $1.50. Luncheon will be served from 12 to 1 P.M. The food will be donated by Coss' Delicatessen, Evin's Market, Mortimer Feldman, Princeton General Store, Royer, Seneca Store, Schaefer's Market, Tuck's, Tuck's, Tuck's Market, Rosalie Locker, Nassau Quality Market, Rockaway Diner, Bait Bakery, NIH's Bakery, Reilly's, A & P, Acme and Lou's Market.

Quota Exceeded. Harold E. Zavner, chapter chairman, has announced that the Red Cross campaign Fund had exceeded its estimate of $38,945, contributing $42,000 to the 1955 national campaign.

With additional gifts expected shortly, it is anticipated that this year's drive will end as one of the most successful of all time in Princeton. Arthur Werner, campaign chairman, expressed his thanks to the community, the choristers and volunteers who participated. The campaign included James A. McFadden, business division; Prof. Walter C. Johnson, and Mrs. Clarence Spencer, residential canvassing; Raymond A. Myers, special gifts; Thomas M. Page, branch chairman; auxiliaries; and Miss Grace V. White, man, public information.

Cyclathon. The time-honored sport of cyclathon received both a shot in the arm and a slap in the face over Princeton's Houseparties weekend as two undergraduates vied with each other to inject a new type of humor into the antics of Tigers and their dates. Peter T. McKinney, III, a senior, and Robert R. Schulze, a junior, staged a cyclathon which netted Schulze $100 and Peter T. McKinney a fistful of financial reward. The Princeton senior collected a $50 kitty at the finish line and $200 several days later as a gift on the "Welcome Train" television show.

All was not well with McKinney, who is a turn-of-the-musical director for the Princeton Triad, and strictly a campus cyclist, for he didn't have enough money to pay a $75 University Store bill. Given the two choices, Schulze said if he would ride a bicycle from Vassar College at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to Princeton, he took up the challenge. Coupled with this was the fact that a little while earlier, Schulze's date for Houseparties was a second reason: it took a team of Yale students to bring her in fashion from New Haven to Vassar, one Princeton senior should easily be able to ride the 130 miles between Vassar and here.

Schulze, who has done some amateurish hill climbing, decided to cycle both ways (from Princeton to Vassar and back), trying to lap McKinney. As it turned out, they finished within a few minutes of each other, and it was a close race from New Brunswick on in—

Money for Morven

It is expected that work may soon begin on the rehabilitation of Morven into a Government office building. In view of New Jersey's bill, if the appropriations bill currently before both houses of the Legislature is approved, it is expected that the Legislature's Appropriations Committee has included in this bill an item calling for $111,270 for the restoration of Morven. This amount, it is believed, will be a larger amount appropriated by the 1954 Legislature, would appear closer to the figure of $120,000 estimated by a special committee appointed by Governor Meyner as necessary for full renovation.

The bill also authorizes $2,000,000 for the Department of Law and Public Safety Building.

To include space for the distribution of licenses by mail, it will be built on U. S. Route 1 in Lawrence Township.

McKinney, who was labeled "Marathon" by classmates, biked 127.1 miles in 13 hours, 29 minutes, 3.8 seconds. Schulze, who acquired the nickname of "Superspokes", went twice the distance, 254 miles, in 22 hours and 15 minutes flat.

"Marathon" put on a burst of speed to cross the finish line on Prospect Avenue and then collapsed as admiring supporters pressed him for a quote. "I'm pretty tired," he replied.

Posing for a picture afterwards with "Superspokes", he referred to the caption as "A bankrupt senior and a game junior." As a result of the popularity of the stunt this year, Kopp's Cycle Shop has offered to sponsor a Vassar Cyclathon each spring during Houseparties, with the winner receiving a new bicycle.

Breakfast Dance. The Princeton High School Senior breakfast dance, to follow the farewell party at the high school, is set for Friday night, at the Nassau Tavern. The hours are from 12:15 to 4:15 a.m.

Bernie Olbry's orchestra will provide music for dancing. During intermission, several members of the Princeton University Triangle Club will present skits arranged by Brooks Jones, president of the club. Larom R. Munson of the Junior Chamber of Commerce has arranged for the following chaperones: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Swinburne, Mr. and Mrs.

Mail Delivery Changes

City and mounted route delivery service will be extended by the Princeton Post office on June 1. Foot delivery will be provided to residents of North Jefferson Road, Deerpath, Clover, Clearview, Riga Row and Lake Lane. Their houses must be numbered and mail slots or receptacles installed.

Mounted route service (the post office's phrase for use of a car by mail carriers) will be provided directly to residents of Poe, Roper, Random, Littlebrook, Marion, and Gulick Roads and Shady Brook, provided their houses are numbered. This will permit them to place rural boxes in front of their residences, whereas in many cases the boxes have been some distance away on the Princeton-Kingston Road.

J. P. Lasley, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Duschnes, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bahadurian, Dr. and Mrs. Clark Gleeson, Leonard Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Munson.

Among the civic groups which to date have contributed to the expense of the affair are Princeton High School Parent-Teacher —Continued on Page 6

Cleveland Stamps at Hun

The only intact stamp collection of a U. S. President will be on display for the first time Saturday at The Hun School's annual Spring Festival. Stamps collected by the late Grover Cleveland, ranging from those first printed in 1847 until the time of his death, will be shown at the school from 2 to 5 as one of the many unusual exhibits arranged for the occasion.

The collection is now the property of Frederick R. Sayen of Hamilton Square. Mr. Sayen purchased the collection from Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, who was first Mrs. Grover Cleveland. The Bureau of Engraving presented it to the former President when he left the White House and made Princeton his home.

Thursday, May 26, from 10 to 12 in the morning and between 1 and 3 in the afternoon. This is the only day registration will occur.

Parents have been requested by the school to bring baptismal and birth registration with the pupil being registered. Record of smallpox vaccination and diphtheria inoculations with booster dose received within the past three years should also be included.

Testimonial Banquet Planned. The Prince Hall Affiliation of the Aaron Lodge No. 9, F. and A.M., will hold a testimonial dinner in honor of the three oldest past masters of the lodge Thursday evening. The dinner will take place in the Masonic Temple, John and MacLean Streets, at 8:30.

Those honored will be Past Master Edward Boyd, who served as Worshipful Master in 1922; Past Master David Lewis, 1931, and Past Master Hasker Saxton, who served in 1932. Dancing and entertainment will follow the dinner.

Eldridge B. Cooper, Past Grand Master of the State of New Jersey, will be the principal speaker at the dinner. James Stryker will serve as master of ceremonies.

Spring Meeting Planned. The Spring Meeting of the Trenton-Princeton Mount Holyoke Club will be held at the home of Miss Esther Todd, Herrontown Road, Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. Those planning to attend are asked to contact Miss Todd by Monday.

In addition to Miss Todd, Miss Elizabeth Kimball and Mrs. J. W. Miller, Jr. will serve as hostesses for the meeting. All alumnae in the area are invited to attend.

Elections. Donald Thiel has been elected president of the Princeton Township Teachers' Association.

Other officers named for the year 1955-56 are Mrs. Nellie Hunter, vice-president; Miss Burnett Griggs, secretary, and Mrs. Margaret Pownall, treasurer. Miss Therese Coderre was elected chairman of the committee making arrangements for a farewell party for the faculty members who are leaving at the end of the school year.

Scholarship Winner. David K. Nergaard of 11 Rollingmead is one of five New Jersey high school students who have won full $1,800 tuition scholarships to Rutgers University in the fifth annual State Science Day competition. Mr. Nergaard, who won his scholarship in physics, was also a winner of a cash sum last fall in the Westinghouse Talent Search.

The competition at Rutgers was among some 275 juniors and seniors from 90 secondary schools in an hour-long examination. State Science Day is sponsored by the New Jersey Science Teachers Association and Rutgers.

News of the Churches

Fellowship Day Planned. May Fellowship Day will be observed this Thursday at 8 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Princeton Council of Church Women. All church women in the community are invited to attend the service, which will be held in the Methodist Church.

Miss Esther C. Stamats, Director of the Division of Christian Social Relations of the General Department of United Church Women will speak on "The Responsible Christian Family", and a brief social hour will follow her talk.

May Fellowship is an annual observance, one of three days marked by the Princeton Council of Church Women and their affiliate, the General Council of Church Women. World Community Day in November, and the World Day of Prayer during Lent are the other observances.

Mrs. George Thomas is President of the Princeton Council and her committee includes the following representatives from the eight member churches: Mrs. Henry Garner, First Baptist; Mrs. Frank Heacock, Princeton Methodist; Mrs. Edna Holland, Mt. Pisgah A.M.E.; Mrs. Minot Morgan Sr., First Presbyterian; Mrs. Walter E. Beers, Second Presbyterian; Mrs. J. Lawrence Broderick, Trinity; Mrs. William R. Brearley, Society of Friends; and Mrs. Howard B. Waxwood, Witherspoon Presbyterian.

Princetonian at Assembly. James Moore, elder of the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, has been chosen by the New Brunswick Presbytery to represent this area as a Commissioner at the 167th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. The Assembly will meet in Los Angeles for a week starting this Thursday.

There are 41 Presbyterian churches in the New Brunswick Presbytery, and three other delegates besides Mr. Moore have been elected. He is the only representative from Princeton.

New Pastor at Mt. Pisgah. The Rev. Y. L. Sims has accepted a call to serve as pastor of the Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church, and has already assumed his pastoral duties. He succeeds the Rev. John W. Johnson who has accepted a call to Plainfield, where he will occupy the pulpit of the Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church.

The Rev. Mr. Sims comes to Princeton from St. Luke's A.M.E. in Newark. Ministers who are affiliated with A.M.E. churches serve a maximum of eight years in one church, and are then eligible to receive calls from other churches. The Rev. Mr. Johnson, who came to Princeton in May, 1947, celebrated his 25th year in the ministry last month.

REGULAR SERVICES

BALLET SOCIETY

The Princeton Ballet Society presentation of "Cinderella," a ballet in three acts with original choreography by Mrs. Audrey Estey to music by Prokofiev, will be performed at McCarter Theatre next Friday, May 27, at 3:30 p.m., and again on Saturday, May 28, at 8:15 p.m.

The Friday afternoon performance is the last in this season's Children's Entertainment Series and tickets are $1.35, 85c and 40c. (Tickets printed May 20 will be used.) Tickets for Saturday evening, at $2.50 for adults and half-price for children 16 and under are now on sale at the University Store (tel. 2333).

Elinor Coffee will be seen in the title role, while Barbara Dilley will play the fairy godmother and Laney Johnson the prince. The identity of the ugly stepsisters is being kept a secret. Mrs. Manuel Greenblatt and Mrs. Chester R. Stroup will play the accompaniment on dual pianos.

A colorful performance is again being planned. In the first act the fairy godmother will be assisted by a corps of fairies costumed as crocuses, summer flowers, autumn leaves and snowflakes to represent the seasons. In the second act Cinderella will go to the ball in a coach drawn by four horses. More than 150 children are taking part in the production.

Sam Jaffe, the "Jungo Dim" of the movies years ago and holder of an impressive list of dramatic accomplishments, will be co-starring with Bill McGuire, currently in "King of Hearts" and well known for his work in "The Moon Is Blue" here and in England.

"Reclining Figure" is a comedy by Harry Kurnitz, Philadelphia raconteur and Hollywood Screenwriter. Mr. Kurnitz' satirical knife is out for the phonies, both dealers and collectors, who inhabit the art world.

Smooth "King." The Bucks season bounded off to a smooth, slick start with the production of the comedy "King of Hearts." The Eleanor Brookes-Jean Kerr work is full of laughs and its smoothness went hand in hand with the production. Most attractive indeed.

Donald Cook, always a master of clever, witty comic parts, excels as Larry Larkin, the wordy, windy and phoney cartoonist he first played on Broadway. Mr. Cook's timing and pacing sets things right for any show.

Kim Hunter succeeded in the slightly infuriating role of Larkin's secretary and bride-to-be who finally gets the word, while Mr. McGuire by underplaying made an appealing hero.

Rex Thompson, the 7-year-old from the original cast, was first rate, but an even smaller performer, Palmer Ward, got the biggest laugh of the show with an ancient gag about the kid who's already had lunch. The smaller parts were strong and they included a large and unusual dog who performs as Figaro.

W. Broderick Hackett, who seems to do apartment sets to perfection, contributed another ace job, well-propertied. The Playhouse, per usual, showed a smart, highly professional production, inaugurating what will

FILM CLASSIC SERIES

"Pennywhistle Blues," considered the outstanding film made in South Africa, will be the fifth and final presentation of the current spring film classic series sponsored by Group Arts. The film will be shown this Friday.

McCosh Hall 50 on the University Campus is the location for the series. Showings are at 7 and 9 p.m. and tickets may be obtained at the door.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Purple Plain (May 18-21) stars Gregory Peck in a story about a war-embittered RAF squadron leader who finds love and adventure in Burma. His rehabilitation and romantic interest is provided through one Win Min Than, a lovely Burmese girl. The film (made for the British Rank organization) needs sharpening. In Technicolor.

Man Without a Star (May 22-24) features Kirk Douglas in a strong western drama, filled with Technicolor scenery, action, some humour and a few songs. Jeanne Crain plays an unscrupulous rancher and Douglas (in a crackling performance) eventually quits her employ to side with the small ranchers. Claire Trevor, William Campbell, Maria Corday and others take part.

Daddy Long Legs (May 25-28) is a venerable story brought sharply up to date and made into a pleasing musical. Fred Astaire and Leslie Caron make the older man, young girl romance a fun thing, bring in laughter, plenty of dancing and music. CinemaScope and color.

Music in Princeton

Concert Preview. The Princeton University Concerts Committee has announced that 1955-56 subscriptions for Series One and Series Two are now being taken. They are ensuring that the 62nd year and once again an interesting and varied set of programs are listed.

Through endorsement by the Philena Forbes Fine and Jessie Peabody Frothingham funds, the concerts are brought to Princeton at prices below cost. Subscriptions are now being filled in the order of their receipt, and full ticket information will be found in the advertisement on this page.

Series One will open with a recital by pianist Pietro Scarpini, followed by the American Negro soprano Leontyne Price, who enjoys outstanding success singing "I've Learned a Little About Love Since Best" for two and a half years.

The annual appearance of the Cleveland Orchestra under

George Szell will be the third concert, and the series will continue with the 200th anniversary of Mozart's birth.

Series Two will consist of five concerts next season, all of them by outstanding musical groups. The American Chamber Orchestra will open the series with an all-Mozart program. The Budapest Quartet will give two concerts in January, with an additional violinist, Nathan Gordon, taking part in the second. The Juilliard String Quartet will then present an evening of modern music.

The series will conclude with a performance by the New York Pro Musica Antiqua. The ensemble, dedicated to the performance of early music, and particularly baroque music, consists of six singers and four instrumentalists, who play the viol, violin, violoncello, recorder, harpsichord and organ.

President Edward Huber is chairman of the concerts committee. Members are Mrs. Charles Grosvenor Osgood, Mrs. Bradford Brooks Locke, Mrs. Harold Willis Dadds, Mrs. McClinton Ellis, Mrs. Walter Lowe, Mrs. Ernest Glesa, Mrs. Roy Dickinson Welch, Mrs. James Barnes, Mrs. McKim Norton, Professor Ernest Theodore DeWald, Professor Edward T. Cone, Professor Carroll C. Pratt, David Shoup and Professor Elliot Forbes.

JAZZ CONCERT

by Ebbie, Weber and Cheneet. The 75-piece senior band under Mr. Horner will perform compositions by Gershwin, Gershon, Hirschfeld, Swanson, Bixby and Gershwin. A trombone choir consists of James Haydu, Alford, Alden, Ralph Beckman, Dan Broder, Bill Craven, Tod Cane, George Kinney and Fritz Marion will play "Hail Trombone" by Franklike.

MURRAY THEATRE

A concert of music composed by students of music at Princeton University will be presented this Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The concert is open to the public without charge, but it should be noted that a similar concert earlier this year drew more listeners than could be taken care of.

The program will include piano suite by Eerie Sulzman; piano pieces by Pohlman, Mallie; pieces for madrigal group by Harry Powers and Peter Westergard; a piece for string quartet by Carlisle; "Waltz" written by Malcolm Peetey; songs for baritone, piccolo and drum and "Appointments" for two flutes by Stanley Seeger; a duet for piano and piano by the composer; "Rhapsody in Violin and Piano" by Jack Urbant, and "Structures" for two wind instruments by Richard Maxfield.

Performers will include Martha McKinney, pianist; Gloria Strassner, cellist; a madrigal group composed by Princeton students under the direction of Professor Elliott Forbes, and numerous musicians from the University, Westminster Choir College and from New York. Jacques Martin will conduct Mr. Maxfield's "Appointments."

The concert has been organized through the University's music department with the cooperation of the Friends of Music at Princeton. It is made possible by the Roy Dickinson Welch Memorial Fund.

thing about which of two husbands the star wants to hang on to. Marge and Gower Champlin, the two stars, are getting along with Jack Lemon. Good songs, elaborate production numbers, fairly ribald but uninspired dialogue. CinemaScope and color are other features.

Ugetsu (May 22-25), a Japanese import with English titles, brings an unusual artistic quality to a story of legend and reality. Possibly superior to "Rashomon," the film tells the story of two peasants, their wife, a concubine with love and feudal warbirds. The special compositional style of Japanese photography and pace puts "Ugetsu" in a special class.

Seven Angry Men (May 26-28) is a good drama, well cast, to picture the career of John Brown (played by Raymond Massey) who sought to end slavery in this country by violence. There is drama in various high points of his pre-Civil War career, but the narrative tends to be muddled. Brown's sons follow him on his raids, but a conflict is established, chiefly through Jeff Hunter who wants to marry Debra Paget.

Sports in Princeton

Cup Race Saturday. The annual Carnegie Cup regatta, involving the freshman, junior varsity and varsity crews of Cornell, Princeton and Yale, is the athletic feature of the coming weekend. The first race is scheduled for 4:15, with the jayvees leaving the stake boats at 5:10 and the varsity at 5:30.

Off what occurred on the Potomac River at Washington last week, Cornell is favored to sweep this Saturday's regatta. The Red did not win the Eastern College Sprint Championship (Penn's fine crew taking the title by a length and a quarter) but Cornell did capture the Rowe Cup on a basis of its three crews' all-around performance. The varsity was second, the jayvees were first and the Ithacans' freshmen were second to Harvard.

In contrast, Yale was fourth in the varsity race with Princeton fifth; the Elis were second in the jayvee event, with Princeton fourth; and the Tiger freshmen were third while Yale was fifth. The races were over a 2,000-meter course, whereas the Carnegie Cup will find the crews rowing a mile and three-quarters, but the greater distance this Saturday does not figure to affect their relative ability.

Princeton surprised pleasantly by qualifying for all three finals, emphasizing its improvement by the fact that Wisconsin and Harvard, both of which had beaten the Tigers in the Compton Cup race, failed to survive their heats. Dutch Schoch used the two-week interval before the Eastern Championships to shake up his boat, installed Mike McTighe as stroke and is now going with five sophomores.

'Fifties Beaten. The Nassau 150-lb. shell ran into rough water and tough luck at Cambridge in the lightweight championships. A passing launch kicked up enough swell so that the knee under the sixth seat was broken and the crew had to row in a borrowed boat. Princeton finished third, behind Penn and M.I.T., both of which it had beaten earlier in the season.

The Tigers will go after the Goldthwait Cup this weekend on the Housatonic at Derby, Conn. Since they took the measure of Harvard in the varsity event last week, with Yale failing to qualify, they are likely to trim their Big Three rivals on Saturday. Last week's loss, however, was tough to take. Victory would have brought it a trip to Henley, England, for the international races this summer.

Two Tigers Win. The crowd of 1,500 that sat in on the Heptagonal Games at Palmer Stadium Saturday got a full share of highly enjoyable action. Cornell won the team title when it topped Princeton's time in the mile relay by a tenth of a second, thereby finishing with a total of 44 1/28 points to 44 for defending champion Yale. It was the closest decision in the 21 years that the event has been held.

Highlights of the day for Princetonians were Captain Joe Myers' triumph in the 440, which he won by six yards in setting a meet record of 47.8 seconds, and Jack Vodrey's dramatic triumph in the grueling two-mile run. The Nassau sophomore was expected to finish third or fourth (where he ran the first seven laps) but he moved into the lead with 300 yards to go and rode off all efforts to catch him.

Gabriel Markisohn was clocked in 9.6 in the 100-yard dash, but still ran second to Penn's John Haines, whose 9.5 effort was also a meet record. The Tigers placed second in both the 440-yard and mile-relay, despite the fact that they set a track record of 3:18.1 in the latter event. It lasted about five minutes. Cornell running the distance in 3:18 flat to pick up the necessary points to edge Yale.

The Tigers were credited with 24 1/2 points, a figure that wound them up in seventh place. Doug Carpenter's fourth-place tie in the high jump was all they could collect in seven field events.

Lacrosse String Extended. In four Yale-Princeton contests at New Haven, the Elis came out top dog three times. Their 7-2 triumph in tennis topped the Tigers from the first-place spot in Eastern Association standings they had held since 1949. Their 3-0 victory in baseball removed Eddie Donovan's nine from the Ivy League race, while the Eli golfers took the Eastern Intercollegiate title, finishing ahead of Harvard, Princeton and 13 other teams.

One contest that the Blue had been hoping to win got away. On a goal in the last ten seconds by Don MacElwee, Ferris Thomsen's lacrosse team triumphed, 7-6, thus preserving the string of victories that was started in 1932. Yale took a 9-1 record into the game, and had been favored to win; the Tigers' success enabled them to finish their season with a 6-4-1 mark, particularly worthwhile in view of the lack of depth and the injuries that removed three key players from action mid-way through the season.

Flippin Hits Hard. About all that is left for the half team is a shot at third place in the league standings and the possibility that Royce Flippin may win the individual batting title. The Tiger football captain-elect has caught fire in the last fortnight, and his three-for-four day at New Haven elevated him to a lofty .448 average in circuit play. Following the mid-week game with Penn on University Field, the Orange and Black concludes its season Saturday with a trip to Cornell.

Yale won last week on a three-run sixth, with southpaw Ken Mackenzie blanking the Tigers. Dick Emery did not allow a hit through the first five innings, but a pair of wild throws by Catcher Carl Pope put Yale runners in scoring position in the sixth. One run crossed the plate on a sacrifice fly, and three straight hits drove in the rest.

Earlier in the week, the Tigers had rallied to edge Columbia, 4-3. Three runs in the seventh brought them from behind a 2-1 deficit, and when starter Jim Gibson ran into trouble in the eighth, Emery nailed down the decision in relief.

Pete Millard walked to open the rally. Captain John Easton singled and Bill Agnew's bunt that went for a hit filled the bases. Hank Thomay's squeeze brought in Millard and Pope's single over second scored Easton and Agnew. The split during the week left the season's record at 11-6.

Other Action. A tennis match against Cornell is set for the Church Courts at 2:30, bringing the season in that sport to a close. The golfers take on Army at West Point, with the track team traveling to Ithaca to meet powerful Cornell.

8 and the annual home-and-home series with Yale are the remaining contests on the spring schedule. Gabe Markisohn and Joe Myers will head the Princeton contingent in the I.C.A.A. championships at Randall's Island, N. Y., next weekend, and the Tigers crews will go to Syracuse in June for the national regatta on the 18th.

The spring season was somewhat below par for Princeton entries. It marked the first time since 1948 that not a single eastern championship had been won. In 1953, the Tigers collared four—in baseball, tennis, lacrosse, and 150-lb. crew. The last two ranked as national titles.

Artistic in Top Spot. Artistic Clippers stood at the top of the Eagles' Community Softball League as the third week of play began on a basis of two victories in as many starts. Nassau Social Club and the Sunbeams had both won once; Applied Science, the Jokers and the Eagles split their first two decisions, while RCA and Frazee's had both lost twice.

Doug Watson buried both of Artistic's triumphs, adding a 12-4 victory over Applied Science to his season's record. Jack Rhubarb collected two of the victors' 11 hits, while John Donaldson weighed in with a triple. Watson held the losers to five; Ray Pyontek pitched for Applied Science.

Harry Kahny outburled Paul Parrot as Sunbeam beat the Eagles, 11-8. Hooker Rauch of the Eagles had a homer. The game was called at the end of 4½ innings by darkness, after having been delayed when Jim Jackson cracked a bone in his ankle.

Nassau Social Club coasted to a 17-5 victory over Frazee's, the veteran Huck McCready limiting the losers to eight hits. George Sickle collected three of the Social Club's safe blows. Howie Cupples had a pair and drove in three runs, while Harry Burton's homer paced the losers. The game was marked by ten errors.

Tony Gaylord pitched the Jokers to a 9-5 victory over RCA, limiting them to four hits. Tom Friel caught for the victors, while the RCA battery was Lefty Lloyd and Jim Kahny.

Games next Tuesday send RCA against the Sunbeams and Artistic against Frazee's. The Jokers and the Social Club are paired, as are the Eagles and Applied Science.

Hurdles Mark Set. Princeton High's shuttle relay team set a record of 1:05 for the 480-yard high hurdles at the 20th annual Long Branch Relay Carnival Saturday. The mark was set in Central Jersey competition.

Alan Graham, Donald Johnson, Thomas Shope and Carl Brown set the high hurdle standard. They also took top honors the 480-yard low hurdles.

The Long Branch Relay Carnival featured competition in the NJSIAA and Central Jersey divisions of Groups I-II, III and IV. The Little Tigers placed fourth in the two-mile relay, their only scoring in NJSIAA competition.

PHS Downs Lawrenceville.

Princeton High's baseball team registered its third victory of the season last week by defeating Lawrenceville, 7-5, in Lawrenceville. A 10-hit attack by the Little Tigers accounted for the triumph.

PHS jumped off to a four-run lead in the top of the first frame, capitalizing on walks and miscues in the Lawrentian defense. The addition of single markers in the second, third and sixth innings provided the Tigers with the winning margin.

The Lawrenceville nine matched Princeton's four-run rally with one of its own in the third stanza, adding three singles to two walks for the four tallies. By this time, however, four runs were not enough. PHS hurler Russ Watson was credited with the victory, his second of the season.

Hun Takes Two. The Hun School baseball team notched its seventh and eighth triumphs last week by defeating Croydon Hall and Bryn Athyn Academy. Both games were road contests.

Second-baseman Jim Lavan carried the major part of the mound load in the Hun's victory over Croydon Hall, 10-4. When starting hurler Herman Degwitz's control broke down early in the contest, Lavan came on to relieve him, striking out seven and giving up no earned runs. Jim Cantwell replaced Lavan at second.

Bruce Davis tallied his sixth victory in eight games by pitching Hun to a 5-3 decision over Bryn Athyn Academy Friday. Ken Zaufer, whose two-run single in the top of the fourth stanza put Hun ahead to stay, was the game's offensive star with three hits in four trips to the plate. Davis fanned 12, holding Bryn Athyn to three safeties.

Following a mid-week contest with Peddie here, The Hun School nine will journey to Solebury Friday. Hun will face Bordentown Military Institute away next Wednesday, then return home to close out its season against Delbarton on Saturday.

Midget League in Action. Heated competition on the baseball diamond is currently underway in the Y.M.C.A. Midget League. The young baseball enthusiasts, who play in two leagues and have taken the names of major league clubs, play four times a week.

Ralph E. Papa of the Y.M.C.A. and B. E. Bergeson, commissioner, head the two leagues—the American and the National—of five teams each. Sponsors for the American League, which includes the Yankees, Red Sox, Tigers, Orioles and Athletics, are Hulit's, Frederick Harris, the Princeton Lions Club, the Princeton Packet and Weiss Clothes.

In the National League, there are the Dodgers, Giants, Braves, Pirates and Cardinals. The sponsors for this group of teams are the Rotary Club, Prince Chevrolet, Music Shop, Plainsboro Lions and Weiss Clothes.

Forum to be Continued. As a result of the success of its first season, the Princeton Forum on Individual Liberties has planned a discussion on the Bill of Rights and its application to current problems. More than 300 participants attended the sessions during the past five weeks.

Four groups will meet weekly between the last of March and the first week of May to discuss the relationship between the individual's liberty and the public welfare. The Princeton-based discussion groups are: Professors Gabriel Almond, William Beane, Marvin Bernstein, Harold Chase, Ansley Coale, William Epstein, Mark Head, Charles Hollers, Lyman Spitzer and Lloyd Thomas.

The Forum Committee members are: Mrs. William Babcock, Mrs. Margaret Barr, Mrs. Harold Cherniss, Mrs. Jean Epstein, Mrs. John Folsom, Mr. Roy C. W. Maier, Bryan V. Moore, Mrs. Marston Morse, Dilman Smith, Mrs. Stanley Smoyer, Richard Sullivan and Professor George Thomas.

Ford Fellowship Grants. Fred G. Burke, 222-B Halsey Street, is one of 14 who have received Ford Foundation grants for study and research in the Princeton area. The awards provide for up to two years graduate work on the histories, cultures and current problems of African peoples.

Practical fellowships were granted to 10 students majoring in more advanced scholars. Mr. Burke, a graduate student in political science at Princeton University, is making a study of the government of Uganda. His special interest is the way and extent to which democratic processes and values have been absorbed at the "grass roots." The study will take him to England for six months and to Uganda for one year.

Mr. Burke studied at the University of Alberta and received his B. A. Degree from Williams College in 1953. At Princeton, he has held a National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. Currently, he holds a Sankey Fellowship in Practical Ethics here.

"Modest Financial Success." The first "April Annual" featured the 1954 Association of N. J. Neuro-Psychiatric Institute recorded a profit of $247, but the event was termed a greater success in bringing persons to see the Institute, with its change from a limited custodial institution to a treatment and research center.

Proceeds came from the sale of articles made and donated by the Monday Club of Princeton, and were added from the Institute's occupational therapy section. There were also 301 paid reservations for luncheon; all proceeds will go towards a centralized, modern store to serve patients and visitors.

Weapons Paper Published. A paper on "Colonial Weapons" by Jack Miller, Princeton resident and well-known authority who is also an historian and expert on firearms, is appearing in the current issue of Ordnance, the magazine of the American Ordnance Association. The paper discusses shoulder weapons used in early America from the matchlock caliver to the Brown Bess musket.

The American Ordnance Association is a non-profit organization of more than 27,000 individuals, engineers and scientists of industry and the defense services. It is now in its 37th year. The association's members assist in the solution of the technical and scientific problems incident to armament preparedness.

Pewter . . . once the mainstay of humble Colonial tables, has now come up in the world and it appears, gleaming like silver, in such well-known Silver Show, 39 Palmer Square West. The pewter is made by The Steiff Company of Baltimore, without any lead at all. As a result, it needs no polishing and is therefore boon to those who hate to polish silver.

Without the closest kind of inspection, in fact, you cannot tell the difference. The pieces, called Williamsburg Pewter, are faithful reproductions of examples on display in the Exhibit Hall of the Williamsburg Fair in Williamsburg. There is a handsome coffee pot with squared-off polished walnut handle, matching creamer and sugar with the rich wood in contrast. The entire set of three is $30, and the price stops right there because pewter does not carry a federal tax. The pot, sugar and creamer may also be bought separately.

We also found a pint-and-a-half tankard for $15 that is custom-made for a graduate present, though it is a pup that was used for baby food, but in the 18th century is now obviously an ash-tray, and a lovely little round bowl that would hold flowers from your garden. To order, there are candlesticks, berry spoon and ladle, egg cup, a julep cup, pots, porringer and plates, and more.

The Silver Shop offers to brides as bridemaids presents a collection of very feminine silver jewelry, sold in New York through George J. Fox, and offered here as a special find for Princeton. In the little jewelry case we saw halter dancer pins like small dolls; two-to-ribbons and seven from the Orient (these are relief, not full figures); bracelets, earrings and necklaces formed of finely engraved leaves or shell designs that look like ancient designs. Some of the silver has been antiqued, but most of it has the soft sheen of the silver itself.

Sutty Nights . . . need not be quite so bad, if the pajamas concerned are the new short ones they have at Landau's, 25 Witherspoon. For men or boy, these are short, short pajamas, designed with surplus neck, cool-looking pastel colors, short sleeves, and gripper closings. For men at $2.25, boys at $1.50. The pajamas for girls and women are also short, but most of the styles are cut like a bloomer. One departs from the bloomer style and presents a striped Bergere fabric with solid colors to match the striped pajama top. To add the final touch to this pajama game, the striped suit is tailored enough to wear without a belt, a sweater or a skirt. You could hop into a car in your pajamas, drive a commuter to his train and nobody would ever guess.

A waltz-length gown emphasizes its category with embroidered waltzers around the wide coat neck. They are blue on a yellow ground.

Little girls will not fret about having to go to bed by day, when they see small printed seersucker blouses, pajamas, the neck lined with white nylon lace. These are $1.98 in sizes four to eight. Older girls may choose a flowered mother Hubbard style gown. Women whose sizes range from two to 32 will find summer nightwear at Landau's.

Bathing suits for women are one-pieces in all-over prints like the coral and white prints on a navy suit, or the rust colored, let's say, on a purring cream-colored background. Suits start at $5.95. There are nearly yard goods on the pajama shelves, so if you visited the store, opening next March. There are percales in various colors, and solids, dimity, seersucker and organdy for dresses or curtains. Try a Harlequin print for a sunnier pillow or a cafe curtain.

For $1.98 you may buy at Landau's a pleated blouse, a blouse that comes in regular or extra sizes. One style shows bugs on a white field, another is a soft blue solid like a summer sky. For $2.98, Steiff offers a sleeveless shirt with antiqued blue flowers on the collar. Dimity is the breezy fabric.

Club and Dr. Leon C. Nurock. The Midget League will continue competition through June 10. The season's activities will culminate with the All-Star game, a best two out of three playoff between the winners of the two leagues on June 13, 15 and 17 at Brookfield Field. A mid-season break will be the offing for Memorial Day, May 30, when the "All-Star" game will be played at Brookfield Field.

Managers for the teams are Del White and Jim O'Connor, the Galvin and Herman English, Athletics, Barney Huntington and Bruce Bedford, Red Sox; Elmer Grey and Jim Carter, Indians; John Hough and Jim Dugay, Tigers. The All-Nation league are Harry Pichette and Harold Davis, Dodgers; George Green and Charles Green, Giants; Ed Moyer and Bob Rosner, Braves; Jim Pizzati and Artie Cattillo, Cardinals.

Seven fields are being used for the regular season contests, which take place on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evening each week. Marquand Park is located on Nassau Street, between Lane and Stockton Street, Mercer Field at the corner of Mercer Road and Hibben Road, and the Y.M.C.A. Field, behind the Y.M.C.A. on Nassau Street. Princeton Country Day Field is at Western Way and Broadmead. The other three in use are the William and Olden Field near University Field, the Valley Road Field at the corner of Valley Road and Washington Street, and the High School diamond at Guyot Avenue and Walnut Lane.

The four most important things in any man's life

His Birth —

His Death —

His Wife —

His Vocation

About your birth you have nothing to say.

Your death is largely beyond your control.

About the selection of your wife — you will have much less to say than you have been led to believe. But your vocation — it's your choice alone, it's in your own hands.

You decide.

Engineering, as a vocation, is an opportunity that is knocking at your door, as opportunity has never knocked before.

The demand for graduate Engineers is increasing and colleges are graduating fewer each year. In 1954 the universities turned out only 19,000 graduates in the Engineering field compared with 50,000 in 1950. Obviously there is need for action to bring American youth and this opportunity together.

Within our state — or close by — there are a number of institutions with sound courses in Engineering training. It would be well to write them for information concerning preparation for Engineering degrees.
